Our Product of the Month

Birds love peanut butter, but they shouldn't be fed the peanut butter sold for human consumption due to the salt content. NutPecker peanut butter food jars offer the perfect way to present it to them. And, the NutPecker peanut butter feeders are specially designed to house jars of bird-friendly peanut butter.

The bird food jars can be inserted into the feeders and hung up in a tree, on a bird feeding station or from a bird table.
